The Phantom Alibi

It is human nature to dedge responsibility. Man is torever seking alibis, blaming his troubles on anything except himself.

Mustrating this, Dr. W. R. Riddell, points out that it is a universal custom to call a disease by a name indicating that it had a foreign origin.

Fon instance, take the mysterious malady we call Spanish influenza. The Spanish call it Italian fever. The Germans call it the Russian pestilence. The Russians call it Chinese catarrh. All countries dodge re-

Psycho-analysis caught popular tancy largely because it furnishes a wealth of new allbis for human weakness and erring Psychic cults thrive as never before, for the same reason. It is for instance, much easier to blame the stars or the influence of the departed than to shoulder responsibility.

The most unfortunate phase is that dodging responsibility tends to make people blunder again and again. The alibi is a weakener, a destroyer. Standing up and taking our medicine is painful, but it strengthens and makes us alert against future mistakes.

dealings were narrow except in a few instances, but the main trend int continued upward with trading int featured by a jump of 5 1-2 points in General Electric. Demand for the motor shares broadened, sending Maca Trucks and Maxwell B. to new 1924 top prices on gains of about two points. Other issues which ecupsed their previous high records were General As-phalt, U. S. Alcohol and Radio Corporation. Wabash preferred A was one of the most active sicks in the railroad list, advancing a point to a new high level. Foreign exchanges opened irregular.
While the volume of trading was nearly back to a normal basis this morning, the main price movement continued upward.

Speculative interest centered tor and motor accessory shares, which were conspicuous among the two dozen new 1924 high records established before noon.
Considerable profit-taking was again in evidence in several sections of the list, but the offerings were bousually well absorbed.

Corn Market Rallies After Early Setback

CHIGAGO — (By Associated Press)—Reports of frost in Argentina together with higher quotations at Buenos Aires and Liver pool sent wheat prices here upward today during the angle deal. ward today during the early dealings. On the advance, however, soms recent heavy buyers turned to the selling side. The volume of to the selling side. The volume of transactions was fairly large, and sentiment rather more evenly divided than has been the rule of late. Opening prices which ranged from 1-2 to 1 1-4c higher, December $1.54 to 1.55 1-8, and May $1.62 to 1.62 3-8, were followed by slight further gains and lowed by slight further gains and then a moderate temporary sag-

Corn and oats were respon-sive to wheat strength and to wintry weather. After opening at 1-2 to 1 1-4c up, May $1.18 3-4 to 1.19 3-8, the corn market receded somewhat, but soon rallied again.

Osts started unchanged to 1-2c higher, May 58 1-2 and later showed a general upturn. In the provision market the effect of lower quotations on hoge was more than counterbalanced by the rise of grain values.
